PROFILE

Master's student in Web and Data Science (University of Koblenz) and part-time QA engineer at Mailbutler. Before my master's I worked for two years as a Systems Engineer at Tata Consultancy Services on the backend and database of an online pharmacy platform. I build end-to-end data projects: SQL and Python pipelines, statistical analysis, forecasts and Power BI dashboards.

WORK EXPERIENCE

2025 - today

Working Student QA Engineer
Mailbutler (remote, Germany)

- Root cause analysis of Mail Tracking bugs together with engineers
- Test pull requests for new features and regressions and run continuous beta tests
- Track issues in Jira and coordinate between engineers and users until they are solved

Feb 2021 - Apr 2023

Systems Engineer (backend and database, online pharmacy platform)
Tata Consultancy Services, Kochi, India. Client: Walgreens Boots Alliance (USA)

- Developed and maintained backend modules in Java EE and Spring Boot
- Designed the order and refill tables and optimised slow MySQL queries and indexes
- Implemented business rules for refills of restricted medicines based on consumption
- Raised unit test coverage to 80% (JUnit, Mockito) and fixed production issues
- Worked on business rules, export configurations and workflows in STIBO Systems (MDM)

PROJECTS

E-commerce Data Platform: Python ETL into a PostgreSQL warehouse with validation, profiling and logging; Airflow, dbt and Power BI layer in progress
